Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 18th September 1954

S.R.O. 369.—The following bye-laws for regulating the use and occupation of out-houses in bungalows in the Cantonment of Aurangabad, made by the Cantonment Board, Aurangabad, in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (28) and (39) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required under sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Bye-laws for regulating the use and occupation of out-houses in bungalows in the Cantonment of Aurangabad

1. In these bye-laws, unless the context otherwise requires, the expression 'out-houses' means quarters built in the compound of a bungalow expressly set apart for the use of servants of the occupant of the bungalow.

2. With the exception of the aforesaid bungalow or out-houses no other building in the compound shall be used for residential purposes.

3. No out-houses in the compound of a bungalow shall be occupied by any persons other than the bona fide servants of the occupant of the bungalow and the families of such bona fide servants.

4. No out-house or other servants quarters attached to an unoccupied bungalow shall be occupied by any person, other than the mail, sweeper and chowkidar attached to the bungalow and their families whose names shall be furnished by the owner to the Executive Officer.

5. If a bungalow is divided or let out in separate portions, the out-houses shall be occupied proportionately by the servants of each occupant whose names shall be forwarded to the Executive Officer by their employers.

6. If the occupant of a bungalow or a portion thereof has more out-houses than he requires, the occupant or the owner shall not let or hire the vacant out-houses to any person without the previous sanction of the Cantonment Board.

7. A contravention of any of these bye-laws shall be punishable with fine, which may extend to one hundred rupees, and in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.

S.R.O. 370.—The following bye-laws for the control and regulation of mills in the Poona Cantonment, made by the Cantonment Board, Poona, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (17) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published, and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Bye-laws

1. In these bye-laws "Mill" means any building or place in which a mill is installed for manufacturing flour or oil and includes any building or place used as a saw, cotton, carding or kharad mill or any other mill, which is run by electricity or oil or by any other mechanical power.

2. No person shall establish or maintain a mill except under and in accordance with the terms of a licence granted in this behalf by the Cantonment Board in Form B.

3. The building or premises in which a mill is proposed to be installed shall be—

- (i) at a reasonable distance from any place which gives out offensive smell such as latrines and cesspits;
- (ii) a solid structure able to withstand the vibration of the engine, with adequate space for fixing a dynamo or engine in a railed enclosure;
- (iii) paved with concrete or cement and having a ceilinged roof, properly ventilated and lighted.

4. A flour mill shall grind only food-grains which are properly cleaned.

5. No engine or dynamo of more than 10 H.P. shall be installed for a flour mill. The maximum horse power of engine or dynamo required for an oil or other mill shall be sanctioned by the Cantonment Board in each individual case. Such machinery shall be fixed on a concrete foundation away from the walls of building in such a manner that the vibrations of the machine do not affect the building.

6. In case of machines run by oil, there shall be a chimney of a reasonably adequate height fixed to eliminate smoke nuisance to neighbours.

7. The mill shall be worked only between such hours as may from time to time be prescribed by the Cantonment Board in this behalf and shall be open to inspection during such hours by such officers and servants of the Cantonment Board as may be authorised by the Executive Officer in this behalf.

8. The premises, apparatus and the containers used, shall be kept scrupulously clean and the personnel working therein shall be inoculated and certified as free from any contagious disease by the authorised Medical Authority.

9. All applications for the grant of a licence referred to in bye-law 2 shall be made in writing to the Executive Officer in Form A.

10. If the holder of a licence commits a breach of these bye-laws his licence shall be liable to cancellation by the Executive Officer and shall not be renewed until such time as the holder of the licence has carried out to the satisfaction of the Executive Officer the orders issued by him.

11. A contravention of any of these bye-laws shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
